Brescia recognizes that extenuating circumstances and extra-curricular activities can affect an individual's academic performance.

The Application Profile is voluntary. For those students who may not achieve the minimum admissions average, but who expect to earn a 75% we strongly encourage you to fill out this form. The information contained in this form, along with attached materials and grades will be reviewed in a confidential process.

First Generation Self Identification Opportunity

Are you the first in your family, including your sibling and parents, to attend university or community college?

Yes No

Is anyone in your immediate family currently attending university or community college?

Yes No

Responses to this question will not be taken into consideration during the admissions process. Instead, it will provide Brescia with the opportunity to identify services to assist you as a First Generation Student.

INSTRUCTIONS

If you would like to let us know about your extra-curricular involvement or extenuating circumstances please read the following instructions and submit the Application Profile. Only those students who fall below our minimum cut-off average will be reviewed.

Extenuating Circumstances		Extra-curricular Activities
Examples	Documents	Examples	Documents
Personal Tragedies	Counsellor assessment	Part-time job	Reference Letter
Accident/Illness	Medical Reports	Student Council	Awards/certificates
Family Illness	Letters of explanation	Volunteer/Service	Any substantiation
Any events you cannot control and have affected your ability to do your school work	Reference Letters	Clubs/Organizations

Please note that extenuating circumstances with documentation may be weighted more heavily than extra-curricular activities. All cases are confidential and reviewed on an individual basis. Please attach all answers to a separate document with no more than 500 words per answer.

- Question 1 a) Please outline any extra-curricular activities including part-time jobs, clubs, organizations, or community involvement in which you have participated in over the past 4 years. How will these experiences prepare you for university?
- Question 1 b) Please outline the circumstances that may have adversely affected your academic performance, particularly during your most recent year of full time study. How did you overcome these obstacles? OR How are you managing your situation?
- Question 2 Are you taking any additional courses to upgrade your current academic standing?

All personal information is treated with care and confidentiality. For more details on Brescia's privacy policy, refer to our website at: http://www.brescia.uwo.ca/privacy_statement.html

- Applicant Profiles are not used to determine scholarships or awards
- All students who do not meet the academic standards for their preferred program (ie: Health Sciences, Kinesiology, Foods and Nutrition, Management and Organizational Studies) will automatically be reviewed for admission for Social Science or Arts

My signature indicates that all responses are factual and were prepared entirely by me.
