

Brescia National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS) Award

Purpose: Brescia University College recognizes the contribution that NSHSS members make in their schools and communities through their academic achievements and extracurricular involvement outside the classroom. The many different kinds of service and participation in which NSHSS students engage in not only provides them with valuable learning experiences, but also allows them to make valuable contributions to society.

The Award: The Brescia NSHSS Award has a value of $3,000 USD. Awards will be made each year to all entering students who are members of the NSHSS, applied directly to the applicants' tuition fees at Brescia University College. Applicants are asked to provide information about academic/extracurricular involvement in their schools, and work or volunteer positions they have held in the community. Applicants will submit a brief profile explaining how experiences have prepared them for university studies. This is a one year, non-continuing award. A student may hold the Brescia NSHSS Award in conjunction with an entrance scholarship.

Eligibility Requirements:

- The award is contingent upon the student maintaining an acceptable final admission average and full time registration at Brescia University College in September 2020
- Applicants must be a registered member of the National Society of High School Scholars (NSHSS)
