Helpful hints for writing your nomination

Award recipients are selected based on the information you provide in your nomination materials. Some questions to consider when writing your nomination:

1. How does this person or team foster the mission, vision and values of Brescia with creativity, innovation and personal initiative in their work and/or life?
2. How does this person or team put aside self-interest?
3. What is the impact this person or team leaves on students, staff, faculty, co-workers, and/or people from the community?
4. How does this person or team go beyond their normal work duties and responsibilities?
5. Does this person or team reflect our brand attributes (compassionate; invigorating; empowering, student-centred)?

Consideration of nominations?

- The deadline for nominations is November 18, 2022
- All nominations received by the deadline date will be submitted for consideration to the Living Leadership Award Selection Committee (The Selection Committee will comprise a cross-section of Brescia employees)
- All employees and work teams nominated will be advised of their nomination
